Judge Bucklew,

As a follow-up to my letter to you yesterday sent by fax and email and as part of my continuing research into the story that I will soon report, I ran John E. Alite's name through Pacer and found a total of five (5) cases in which he was a defendant in three judicial districts from March 14th, 1996 through April 26th, 2011 when you issued your Amended Judgment in U.S. vs. Trucchio et. al.

Clearly, prior to the point he stood before your bench John Alite was a career criminal, who broke the law in multiple jurisdictions. But what's relevant to any decision you might be considering with respect to violating his Supervised Release, if you do, it won't be the first time.

As you'll see from the attached pdf, which is an overview of Mr. Alite's five separate cases as a federal defendant, on July 15th, 2002 in a case in the very NJ district where he continues to reside, Mr. Alite's term of Supervised Release was revoked by Judge Joseph H. Rodriquez. He took that action more than six years after the initial case involving the interstate transport of firearms was terminated on July 9th, 1996.

At that time Mr. Alite was sentenced to 37 months in prison with another 36 months of Supervised Release which he violated and was remanded back to prison for three (3) months. The question is, your Honor, in this instance will you hold to the same standard as your colleague in New Jersey?

Judge Rodriquez was hardly a "law and order judge." He was the former Public Advocate for the State of New Jersey, so for him to "violate" a career felon like John Alite was significant and underscored his respect for the laws governing probation.

In continuing my research today I also downloaded a copy of the transcript from your sentencing on September 27th, 2005 of Pasquale "Pasty" Andriano, one of the co-defendants in U.S. vs. Trucchio and a member of Mr. Alite's crew. During that hearing you acquiesced to the request of AUSA Jay G. Trezevant that Mr. Andriano "receive a sentence at the low end of the applicable advisory guideline range."

As such you sentenced him to 63 months, or as his attorney put it, "the lowest guideline number available to the court." Although you could have fined Mr. Andriano between $12,500 to $125,000 you decided not to assess a fine.

Your leniency toward Mr. Andriano takes on new ironic meaning based on his continuing association with Mr. Alite which I detailed in my September 8th, 2015 letter to you:

Of particular concern are (Mr. Alite's) multiple appearances at Long Island bars and night clubs with Pasquale "Patsy" Andriano. See this excerpt from my email to which Mr. Antonison never responded.

"PASQUALE "PATSY" ANDRIANO

"The son of a murderous Genovese member whom Alite calls his "cousin" in "Gotti's Rules," Andriano was the confessed shooter in the murder of John Gebert, whom he killed on July 12th, 1996 at the age of 19."

"Andriano, as you'll see from the attached SDNY motion from the prosecution of Gambino killer John Burke was a government witness (CW) in that trial -- and, like Alite was released from prison after his cooperation.

"In fact, Andriano was originally indicted with Alite in the alleged Gambino-related murder/racketeering prosecution in Tampa of Ronald J. "One Arm" Trucchio. This was the case in which Judge Bucklew sentenced Alite after his plea.

<http://www.gainesville.com/article/20041201/WIRE/212010340>

"By the way, when Andriano killed Gebert at Frankie & Johnny's bar in Queens, as he hid under a pool table, an innocent bystander was shot.

"Below you'll see multiple recent pictures from Alite's Facebook account of him with Andriano, including them hanging out with Alite's sons at an unidentified beach resort and an upscale Long Island nightclub.

"Understand that Andriano isn't just some mob associate, he's the convicted murderer of Gebert, one of the main counts in "Gotti Jr. IV" and it's clear that John Alite is regularly crossing state lines to party with him."

As a reporter with a law degree who has covered law enforcement and the courts at the local, state and federal level for many decades, it seems to me that by repeatedly meeting with Mr. Andriano, a murderer and co-defendant in the same Tampa case and by brazenly posting photos of those meetings which took place outside the NJ District, Mr. Alite has not only violated your Amended Judgment but demonstrated contempt for you and your court.

If, in the face of the evidence I've sent to you, you choose to follow one of the options Mr. Brennan discussed with me and "do nothing," it will demonstrate a serious disconnect between your court and Judge Rodriquez's.

The fact that an esteemed judge in his own district sent John Alite back to prison for three months (six years after sentencing) and yet Mr. Alite felt the confidence to defy your Amended Order with such impunity is quite telling about his respect for the rule of law and its equal application.

Please show me the courtesy of a response so that I may accurately report your ruling, if any, in this matter.

Sincerely,
